Drug Arrest

Osage Beach, MO – On 06/21/2023 The Osage Beach Police Department and the Mid Mo Drug Task Force concluded a several-month-long investigation during a traffic stop on Osage Beach Parkway. Multiple suspects were arrested for narcotics, drug paraphernalia, and a stolen firearm during this stop.

As a result of this traffic stop a narcotic/weapon's related search warrant was later executed on Executive Drive in Osage Beach. A search of this storage unit resulted in the seizure of 27 grams of Cocaine, 4 grams of methamphetamine, 4 grams of psilocybin mushrooms, drug paraphernalia, ammunition, and bulletproof vests were recovered. Furthermore, the Missouri State Highway Patrol bomb squad was contacted and safely seized and removed multiple explosives found within the unit.

Travis Goff and 2 others were arrested and transported to the Camden County Jail and were placed on 24-hour holds awaiting bond. Travis Goff was later charged with Trafficking Drugs and Unlawful possession of a firearm and given No Bond.

The agencies involved are as follows; the Osage Beach Police Department, the Mid-Mo Drug Task Force, the Columbia Police Department, Missouri State Highway Patrol Bomb Squad, and the Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA).

All suspects are innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
