-City of Osage Beach-

New Assistant City Administrator

Osage Beach, MO – Osage Beach announces the recent promotion of April White as the new Assistant City Administrator for the City of Osage Beach. April has been with the City for over 17 years starting as the Utility Billing Clerk in 2007. She was then promoted to the Administrative Assistant to the City Administrator in 2015 and, most recently, serving as Staff Accountant since 2016. April has a BS in Agriculture Business as well as previous finance and banking experience prior to coming to the City of Osage Beach.

Devin Lake, City Administrator states, “I am very excited to work with April, (in her new role) as we move the City forward in a positive way. Her experience and earned respect are unmatched. We have a great team and her taking on this new role will undoubtedly be a benefit to the Osage Beach community”.

Mrs. White will be replacing Mike Welty, who left the City to advance his career at the City of St. Clair, Missouri.
